MAKING THE INVISIBLE VISIBLE

NEW CATHOLIC MAGAZINE
LAUNCHES WITH A BIG GOAL:

TO BE AVAILABLE TO 5 MILLION IN THE
U.S. BY 2030

Embodied is a quarterly print magazine designed specifically for those largely unfamiliar with the theology of the body.

It provides practical solutions and hope for both everyday challenges and tough moral and relationship questions.

It draws readers in through beautiful design, imagery and masterful storytelling.

Embodied aims to remind readers who they are – beloved sons and daughters of a God who loves them.

It comes at a time when the culture has become increasingly sick: the breakdown of the family, the ridicule of virtue, the widespread embrace of relativism. Yet our efforts at fixes, usually labeled as “progress,” have done nothing to address the root cause.

The root cause was identified over 40 years ago by Polish Cardinal Karol Wojtyla: disregard for the dignity of the human person. The man who would become Pope John Paul II knew the way out of the mess was through remembering who we are in God's eyes: We are embodied persons, made in his image and likeness, and when we love like God loves we make Him visible in the world.

“A theological time bomb, set to go off with dramatic consequences.”

That’s how papal biographer, George Weigel, described Pope

John Paul II’s theology of the body. When pressed on the timing, he said he thought it would be sometime after 2030.

OUR GOAL IS FOR EMBODIED MAGAZINE
TO HELP LIGHT THE FUSE-
To be available to 5 million in the U.S. by 2030!

It belongs in the hands of parents, teachers, RCIA candidates, engaged couples, young adults...and anyone who wants to understand their purpose in life. We plan to grow Embodied’s reach through both individual subscriptions and partnerships with like-minded ministries who will become distribution channels.

We are looking for investors who want to enable this God-sized dream to become reality!

We invite you to invest the resources God has given you—your energy, your prayer and your financial gifts—in this vital Holy Spirit-led work to touch souls and change lives through the theology of the body.

Our Team

In accepting your generosity, we guarantee that you too will benefit! You'll become richer by giving.

Your life-giving, hope-filled expression of goodwill will touch others through Embodied Magazine. Here's how:

FOR READERS, EMBODIED MAGAZINE...

Provides an inviting introduction to theology of the body.

Becomes a welcoming and thought-provoking re-entry point for the disengaged or indifferent.

Helps parents equip their children to swim against the tide and thrive in today's culture.

Draws connections to TOB-based and other relevant programs and resources.

FOR LIKE-MINDED MINISTRIES, EMBODIED MAGAZINE...

Showcases the fruits of their work and extends understanding of theology of the body.

Provides advertising placement for programs, products & events.

Creates a network hub that connects a community of theology of the body and other like-minded ministries.

HOW TO MAKE A GIFT TO EMBODIED MAGAZINE

Embodied Magazine does not profit alone, because you, as a donor, participate in a new communion with others while becoming part of a much larger spiritual vision and fruitfulness. In giving and receiving, each from our riches, we work together for the full coming of a civilization of life and love. An investment leads to building lives of integrated, happy wholeness...and YOU can help make that happen!
